

Indian Summer or Golden Autumn?

*Experience Saint-Petersburg
during the International week of the Higher School of Economics!*

Sunday August 24, 2014:

Arrival day

Monday August 25, 2014:

11.30-12.30 – Welcome Presentation of the Campus

12.30-13.30 – Coffee Break. Campus and Surroundings Tour

13.30-15.00 – Presentation of International Master Program in Comparative Social Research

15.00-16.30 – Survival Russian Workshop

19.00 – Welcome Dinner

The participants learn general information about Higher School of Economics and study opportunities it offers for domestic as well as international students.

Tuesday August 26, 2014:

10.00 - 12.30 – Informal Culture St.Petersburg (Field Trip)

12.30 – 14.00 – Student Start-Up the UniFashion Company

14.00 – 15.00 – Lunch

15.00 - 15.30 – Teambuilding Training

15.30 – 16.30 – Presentation of HSE Informal Russia Multidisciplinary Program

Everyone knows about Russia as a huge freezing iceberg on the map. However, not everyone sees its unique business opportunities, versatile and inspirational culture and generous hospitality of people behind the scenes. The participants see the other side of Russia: its people and its vibe.

Wednesday August 27, 2014:

11.30-12.30 – Presentation of International Master Program in Applied History

12.30-14.00 – Lecture by Prof.Dietmar Wulff (University of Bielefeld). Historical Perspective of Russian Space.

14.00-14.30 – Coffee break

14.30 – Global Village

19.00 – Salsa Workshop

The past has always influenced present. Dynamic development has never been possible without proper historical lessons-learnt. St.Petersburg is a city which saw ups and downs in Russian history and has always been an international melting pot. You get a unique opportunity to feel international spirit and see it through the lens of Russian history.

Thursday August 28, 2014:

10. 00 – Excursion to the town of Pushkin (Ekaterininskiy palace) –Optional
Cost – 30-40 Euros.

The town of Pushkin lies just outside St. Petersburg and has a marvelous ensemble of palaces and parks. It is particularly famous for its impressive baroque Catherine Palace, where Empress Catherine the Great lived and died. The palace was almost totally destroyed during World War II, but has risen like a phoenix from the ashes due to an extensive restoration program undertaken since the war. Enjoy a visit to the palace, stroll along the alleys of the park with its numerous pavilions, ponds and sculptures.

Participation is free. Accommodation and living cost are covered by participants. We expect participant living together in a hostel in the city center, near the HSE Campus. Average price is 500 RUB (≈ 15 $). Average lunch price in the university canteen is 100-200 RUB (≈3-6$).

Deadline for registration is 1st August 2014.

For more information please contact:

Marina Nosacheva, International Office HSE – St.Petersburg, mnosacheva@hse.ru

